Measure of Man Guiding Questions

Make sure to answer each question in full with at least 2 full sentences.

1. What has been a common theme with humanity in the book Frankenstein?
2. What comparison can you make between Data and the creature?
3. Does Maddox remind you of Victor Frankenstein, why or why not?
4. What is a sentient being?
5. Obviously Data is not hideous nor rejected, but he is still being treated inhuman, as was the creature. What comparison could be made here?
6. At what point does it seem that a creature, even if they are not human, can become human?
7. Does one have to be flesh and blood to be human? Why or why not?
8. Is the challenging of the ruling the logical thing to do?
9. Why do we seem attached to the concept for someone to be human they must indeed be born of a mother?
10. Based off this answer, do you believe that either the creature or Data happen to be human, or are they not human? Explain (4 Sentences)